To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Jerren Ajodhasingh, who I have had the pleasure of working with as a Student Representative and Orientation Leader at Berkeley College. In the time I have known Jerren, he has consistently demonstrated outstanding dedication, integrity, and a genuine passion for learning and growth.

He is an intelligent, honest, capable, and personable person who has a promising future in the business administration and management sector. As the current Director of the New York City campus, I have seen Jerren in action. Beyond academics, he extends a helping hand, volunteers wholeheartedly, and is willing to step out of his comfort zone to enhance his skills as a student. He has excellent communication and delegation skills which will allow him to lead a great team in any role. He is remarkable at multi-tasking, prioritizing and working under pressure to meet all deadlines assigned to him, especially as an Orientation Leader. He has proven to be a take-charge person who has the ability to stimulate, challenge, and cultivate the minds of his peers and those that he comes in contact with.

Mr. Ajodhasingh is always quick on his feet, with sensible reactions in all the circumstances I've seen him in. I feel confident in saying that he can handle any situation with thoughtfulness and maturity. He has shown the ability to establish an excellent rapport with many different constituents including students, faculty, administrators, and staff and I feel he can do the same in any future opportunities.

Mr. Ajodhasingh is exceptionally responsible and can blend a well-organized, task-oriented style with the aforementioned sensitivity to the needs and information of those he will work closely with.

As you can tell, I think very highly of Mr. Ajodhasingh. It is for these reasons that I offer high recommendations for Jerren without reservation. His drive and abilities will truly be an asset to any future organization or company. If you have any questions regarding this recommendation, please do not hesitate to contact me at 914.694.1122 EXT.3333.

Sincerely,
