To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend Jerren Ajodhasingh, President of Act of Random Kindness (ARK), for any future leadership opportunities within your organization. Jerren is an exceptional individual whose visionary leadership, deep compassion, and unwavering dedication to social impact make him an invaluable asset to any nonprofit mission.

As President of ARK, Jerren has demonstrated an extraordinary ability to lead with both heart and strategy. Under his guidance, ARK has grown as a beacon of service, spreading kindness through grassroots initiatives, community engagement, and innovative programming. He brings people together, builds sustainable frameworks, and leads with a spirit of generosity that truly embodies the values at the core of meaningful nonprofit work.

Jerren is not only a leader but a builder—of people, of partnerships, and of purpose. His work consistently reflects a commitment to equity, empathy, and tangible change. I have no doubt that any future nonprofit he chooses to be a part of will benefit tremendously from his vision, experience, and character.

I offer my highest recommendation for Jerren Ajodhasingh, and I encourage you to strongly consider him for any role that aligns with his passion for service and transformative leadership.

Sincerely,
Asha Rampersad
