To Whom It May Concern:

Subject: Letter of Recommendation for Jerren Ajodhasingh.

I am a Professor, teaching in both Undergraduate and Graduate programs. I have diverse background experiences, including working in Finance, the Legal Service, and teaching online and in brick-and-mortar settings. This is where I had the pleasure of working with Jerren as his Professor at Berkeley College.

Jerren has consistently proven himself to be a diligent worker throughout my course. He is a resolute worker with a talented and inventive mind. He applies what he is taught to his everyday life and always comes to class with Socratic questions to enlarge his insights. Jerren Ajodhasingh is extremely focused and an initiative-taker, driven to achieve success in whatever he does. It was a pleasure having him in class and collaborating with him, and I know that once you have collaborated with him, you will be able to state the same.

Whatever he is seeking in life, and as you can see from my letter of recommendation, he is an achiever and a goal-getter. His experience and the courses learned, along with his cheerful outlook/mindset, will help him to be an asset. He is brilliant, kind, and very articulate; he works well in a diverse environment. His attitude demonstrates an individual with exceptional character; therefore, I highly recommend him.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
Dr. Sylvia Ephraim
Professor, Berkeley College
