

July 22, 2025

Dear Hiring Manager,

Hello, my name is Andrea Kennedy, I am Lead Faculty of the Fashion Merchandising and Management Department at Berkely College. I am writing today to highly recommend Jerren Ajodhasingh for a position on your team.

I had the opportunity to first get to know Jerren Ajodhasingh during the Winter 2024 semester at Berkeley College. Jerren volunteered to be part of the Fashion floor creative multi-day organizing sessions my department coordinated. From his first day, Jerren impressed me. Jerren arrived early, worked collaboratively, offered great ideas, and demonstrated an attention to detail that made the fashion lab, shelves and displays more engaging and extremely organized.

Since then, I've been continually impressed by Mr. Ajodhasingh. Jerren is a dynamic member of our college community. He is an active member of our student club, attends many Berkeley forums and networking events, and has been a great team member supporting and assisted in preparing for and helping at the department's college's two student fashions.

Jerren additionally helped recently with the New York State Fashion Act Advocacy project at the college. In this project, students create scores of flower pins for New York state lawmakers and business professionals to wear for the Fashion Act lobby day, all made from deadstock fabric. Jerren helped design, assemble, and pack the flower pins so they could ship on time to Albany. Without a doubt, Jerren is one of the reason we successfully completed this flower-making project!

It has been a true pleasure getting to know Jerren Ajodhasingh. He is very positive, extremely responsible, responds well to feedback, is hard-working, and always willing to help and assist faculty and other students. I know Jerren's great work ethic will serve him very well at your company and in his career, For those reasons, I wholeheartedly recommend Jerren for a role at your company.

Feel free to reach out with any additional questions. I can be reached via email at: andrea-kennedy2@berkeleycollege.edu.

Sincerely yours,

Andrea K. Kennedy
Lead, Fashion Merchandising and Management
Larry L. Luig School of Business
Berkeley College
3 East 43rd Street, Suite 604B, New York, NY 10017